"Be An Angel, Pick an Angel": The "Needs" boards are located in the Narthex. Please help defray the cost of school supplies. Once you pick the angel/angels that you wish to purchase for the school, bring the supplies back and place under the table. Thanks to all who purchase these small items for the school.

Summer Update: Lots of storms are sweeping through the area. We hope that no one has suffered badly with the winds and rain. The storms haven't stopped the staff at St John in our preparation for the new 2010-2011 school year. The floors are being waxed and the library carpet is being installed the school is getting cleaned ready to open the doors on a new year of learning here at St John. We need to know who is coming back in the fall. Get those Enrollment packets turned in.

New for next year: Volunteer/Student of the Month. On the Sunday of the month when St John student's sing for late service a special announcement to honor the students, staff, or parent that went beyond servitude for the month.

Woodworker still needed: If you are willing to cut some Melamine Board (White Board) and router the edges for student use let us know.

Old CD, and DVD's and yarn: Please look around for any old, scratched, or unwanted ones the school can use them for craft projects. Also needed old yarn. Drop them off anytime.

Still Collecting: We are on summer break, but you still gotta eat and drink. Keep on collecting those milk caps, box tops, and Labels for Education.

E-Mail addresses needed: Parents please get us your E-mail addresses, this makes getting information to you so much easier. Send to school@mailstjohn.com.

St. John website: Go to the website, www.stjohnofwausau.org and checkout your classroom for updates and assignments.

Visit the School Library, Summer Hours and Dates: August 10, and August 24th.
